

Rocky Hill is CELEBRATING

Rocky Hill Borough Council,
Rocky Hill Community Group
& the Preservation Celebration
Committee INVITE YOU... during Somerset County's 6th annual
Weekend Journey through the Past!

Saturday, October 8, 2011

---

RHCG Openhouse 10 am-3 pm: Exhibit & Walking Tours

The recently restored Amy Garrett House is open from 10 am-3 pm for "History in your own Backyard" Arts Exhibit and Community Group Archive Display. Walking Tours at 11 am.

RH Historic Churches 3 pm: Progressive Choir Concert

Begins 3:00 pm at St. Elizabeth's Orthodox Church, 38 Princeton Avenue; then Trinity Episcopal Church, Crescent Ave.; concluding at First Reformed Church of Rocky Hill, Washington St. & Reeve Rd. - Reception to follow.

Sunday, October 9, 2011

---

Community Picnic 2-5 pm at Borough Hall Park

Bring Pot-luck to share & enjoy Food donated by local restaurants. Live Music by the Rocky Hill Ramblers. Historic Preservation Recognitions, Presentation of Oral History Publication, Recognition of Rocky Hill School alumni and "History in your own Backyard" Arts Exhibit.

OCTOBER 2011: Living History

a month-long exhibit at Mary Jacobs Library featuring Photography by Janet Gardner

Preservation Celebration Committee: Melissa Bernardi, Susan Bristol, Marilyn Crane, Joan Eckstein, Janet Gardner, Peggy Harris, Philip Hayden, Joyce Lott, Jeanette Muser, Mei Mei Morris & Julia Hasser (Borough Council Liaison)

Parking Available throughout the weekend at Princeton Business Park, 5 Crescent Avenue, Rocky Hill

CONTACT US: RHPreservationCelebration@gmail.com or call 609.924.7989